Merlingo proved the unexpected of Emeryville racing yesterday by winning the fourth event at 30 to 1 odds. But doubtless it didn't surprise everybody.

Sport, a $2000 trick Spitz dog, was killed by an automobile in Chicago lately. Owned by Robert McCallister, the pup was one of the most highly educated canines in the country.

The largest crowd on record in Portland opened the season yesterday with Portland and Oakland an attraction. The home team won of course, 2 and 0 it was.

The Aqueduct track was heavy yesterday. But that didn't prevent Alberto Terrazas from predicting 15 years of racing at Juarez. Good for Al.

To Harry Baker, of San Francisco, went the decision over Percy Cove, of Montana in a 15 round fight at Oakland last night. It was a topsided go all the distance.

Rain killed the National league plans yesterday. Rain also put the kibosh on two American league games.

With heavy track and heavy clouds, the Maryland Jockey club is opening the spring racing meet at Baltimore today. One feature is a steeplechase.

Sam Langford has engaged training quarters at Merchantsville, N. J., with Al Kublik and George Cole as star sparring partners. Sam will meet Stanley Ketchel, April 27, at Philadelphia.

The San Francisco-Sacramento game yesterday was won by Ping Boddie. He walloped the sphere into distant court, making the only run of the game. Ping never played ping pong.

Kyle Whitney, of California, took 15 rounds to win the decision over Bill Hurley, of Glens Falls, N. Y., in a mill at Lawrence, Mass., last night. It was a ladylike fight.

Fred Beale and Jack Connel, two American fighters of Mexico, have left the city for the northern part of the republic. Connel will do some theatrical work in Chihuahua and Beale is looking for a match in Monterrey.

Vernon won from Los Angeles yesterday by walloping when it counted. The first inning saw a tie, 2 and 2, but ended 4 and 3.

Mayor John Fitzgerald, of Boston, pegged the first ball of the American league season at the Hub yesterday morning, and after that the bean boys walloped Washington, 2 and 1.

The bowling craze has taken Mexico City by storm. All sorts of clubs are being organized. Previously bowling was confined to the Y. M. C. A.

Just thirty thousand and seven fans saw Boston defeat Washington 5 and 4 yesterday afternoon. The game was won in the ninth at the beginning of which the visitors were two runs in the lead.

Governor Frank L. Benson, of Washington, and mayor Joseph Simpson, of Portland, formed honorary batteries for the opening game at the northwestern city yesterday in which the Portland team shut out Oakland by two scores. It was a record crowd.

Over 500 tracks have already claimed racing dates for this season. Trainer Jack Meekie says that the Cornell relay team this year is the fastest which ever ran for the Ithaca college.

A Minnesota boat club eight will meet the freshman crew as a curtain raiser for the Wisconsin-Washington varsity race on Lake Mendota June 4.

The Canadian Athletic union has been officially notified by the British Olympic council of the abandonment of the Olympic games at Athens this year.

The Dominion of Canada Rifle association has decided to add $1,000 to the prize lists this year and extend the meet into Saturday, one day longer than usual. The events will be held at Ottawa the week of Aug. 22.

The national intercollegiate relay races will be held at the University of Pennsylvania field, Philadelphia, May 27 and 28. The New England intercollegiate sports will occur on the Tech field, Brookline, May 20 and 21.

Ad Wolgast, the new lightweight champion, is reported to have said: "No colored scrappers for me. If any black man gets near the top in the lightweight class he never will win the championship by whipping me. For I'll never enter the ring with a negro. I draw the color line. Joe Gans is down and out for good, but if he does want a chance he will not get it from me."

A combined Oxford and Cambridge Rugby football team will visit the United States next fall to play a series of games in Canada and the west. A match may also be secured in the east if a strong enough college team is developed. Matches have been arranged with McGill university, the University of Toronto and the Universities of Nevada, Chicago and California.

Nat Cartmell, the former University of Pennsylvania sprinter, who turned professional in England, wants Mike Murphy, coach of the Red and Blue team, to go to England with him this season, when he will contest against some of the prominent athletes over there.

Over in England a new game has been invented called "vigoro," which, the promoters declare, will supplant cricket and baseball. It is called the "world's exercise." From the description of it it seems to be a cross between lawn tennis and cricket and is said to possess the element of "dazzling quickness" and "exhilarating excitement."

KLING PAYS HIS FINE WITH EASE

Will Merely Walk onto the Stage Twice a Day for a Week for $700.

Kansas City, Mo., April 20.—Mighty is fame. To procure that $700 fine imposed by national baseball commission men, John G. Kling has gone into the theatrical business. The crack catcher will walk upon the stage of a Chicago music hall, bow, and walk right out again. That is all, and he will receive $700 for doing it twice a day for one week.

"My real reason for signing the contract," said Kling, "is that I want to get back in baseball. I could not afford to take my fine out of my business here, and the theater work will be an easy way to get the necessary money. But there will be no talking on my part. I came near rejecting the proposition because they wanted me to make a speech."

Johnny will report to manager Chance of the Chicago National club next Sunday morning and will play out the season for $4500, as offered.

Y. M. C. A. BOWLING.

The Texas Telegraph Bowling trophy cup has arrived at the El Paso association. It is large and shapely, and a fitting honor for local bowlers who won it over all other associations of the state. The cup was presented by Lina Brown of Dallas.

By a 58 pin margin, team No. 6 won over No. 10 players last night. Evans and Rodriguez tied for high game at 198, and Evans made high total at 548. Play between teams 5 and 3 resulted in a victory for No. 3 by a 34 pin margin. W. Christie made game at 210 and total at 550. Scores were:

Team No. 5: W. Christie ..... 190 210 210 580
